

I support the proposal to remove the morse code requirement from all amateur radio license examinations. In order to preserve the integrity of the amateur radio service, perhaps a more comprehensive written examination should be required, depending on license class.

Brian Litzneberger, N0PMZ